Headlines:

Kittles top Joks

Summary:

The day was cloudy and muggy. In the bottom of the 1st inning, Kittles scored 4 runs with big 2-out singles from Paul Berard and Peter Leitch. Leading off the 4th, braggadocio Kevin Simoneau taunted Jimmy Edwards in right field saying he was going to knock the ball past him, and he did for a solo HR. If you can do it, it aint bragging. Kittle scored 4 run in the bottom of the 4th or 6 straight singles, the biggest being a hot grounder by Ed Longo that went between the 1st and 2nd baseman. Kittles scored 3 more in the 5th with big singles from Peter Beyer and Paul Berard. Efficient game where everyone except the last batter in the lineup batted only 3 times. Joks were only able to scratch out 13 hits. Hitting stars with 3 hits were Paul Berard, Don Clark (2Rs) and Jimmy Edwards.

IMEC wins in 7th

Summary:

IMEC jumped out to a 5-0 lead in their 1st on 8 straight hits keyed with doubles from Jack Gilhooly and John Remillard. Global struck back with 5 of their own in the 2nd on 7 hits with Dave Ciampa getting a big opposite field hit. In the 3rd, IMEC scored 5 more runs highlighted by a long Bobby Pelletier 3-run HR that sailed over the left centerfielder's head. In the top of the 6th, Mike Hastings launched a gapper to centerfield that neither centerfielder to get to that ended up being a game tying 3-run HR. In the bottom of the 7th, Peter Monaco gapper to right center plated John Remillard with the winning run. Hitting stars with 4 hits were Jack Gilhooly (3 2Bs) and with 3 hits Dick Gillespie, John Remillard (3Rs), Peter Monaco (2Rs), Bob Pelletier, polyamorous Gary Schoolcraft (3Rs) and Rusty Schwarzenberg (2B).

Pine Streets in a low scoring game

Summary:

In perhaps might be a preview of the finals, Pine Street and Visionworks played a classic defensive battle. Each team had only 12 hits in a league where the losing team usually gets 24 hits. Visionworks left 9 men on base, and it came back to bite. The majority of Pine Street lineup only batted 3 times. Not much to highlight with the scoring for this game. In the 1st, Gary Royal's double highlighted a 2-run inning. In the 3rd Bob Waters' double keyed a 3-run inning. Visionworks went radio silent for from the 4th to the 7th. Pine Street only scratch out 1 run. The hitting star was Bob Waters (2B, 2Rs). No one else had more than 2 hits.

Headlines:

Visionworks scores 5 in 6th and survives a Kittles rally

Summary:

Kittles scored 5 in their 1st on doubles from Don Clark, Del Patton, Bob Pelletier and Ed Longo. Global scored 5 in the bottom of their 2nd when Mike Smith's long fly ball with the bases loaded over the outfielder's head was the big hit. In the top of the 3rd inning, Del Patton's double made the score 8-6. Visionworks tied the score at 8-8 in the 5th on Peter Zocco's single. Bottom of the 6th, we had a repeat of the Kevin and Jimmy show where Kevin tells Jimmy "here it comes!" and hits a HR. It was a 2-run HR that was a pop-up the landed a foot fair and Kevin danced around the bases while Jimmy chased the ball. Bottom of the 7th, Kittles loaded the bases with 6 straight hits, and had the bases loaded. But Don Kasper turned a nifty 3U-2 double play to end the game. Hitting stars with 4 hits were Bob Pelletier (2B) and 3 hits were Butch Dunham (2Rs), Del Patton (2 2Bs, 2Rs), Kevin Simoneau (HR, 2Rs), Jimmy Hall, Pierre Dionne, Gary Dumas and the Magister Bill Simmons.

Whats the call ump? Runner on 1st with 1 out. Batter singles to centerfield. The runner on first touches 2nd and scampers into 3rd just as the ball is arriving. As the 3rd baseman attempts to catch the ball, he shoulders the runner off the base and tags him, claiming the runner has overrun the base. Whats the call?

If in the judgment of an umpire, a runner is pushed or forced off a base by a fielder, intentionally or unintentionally, at which the runner would have otherwise been called safe, the umpire has the authority and discretion under the circumstances to return the runner to the base he was forced off following the conclusion of the play.

Pine Street survives Arts rally

Summary:

In the top of the 1st, Gary Royal's single keyed a 3-run inning. In the bottom of the 1st, Dan Birck's single highlighted a 2-run reply. Pine Street scored 5 in their 3rd keyed by a Bud Wood double. Pine Street scored 5 more in their 5th keyed by a Dave Duval triple to make the score 13-2. In the bottom of the 6th, Arts batted around, sent all 11 batters to the plate, got 9 hits and scored 6 runs with Paul Nalettes 2-run HR being the big hit. Arts had another 5-run rally in the bottom of the 7th when Arts sent 10 men to the plate, had 6 hits, scored 5 runs, and left the bases loaded when the last out was recorded. Arts outhit Pine Street 23 to 18. Hitting stars with 3 hits were affable Wally Hedlund, Dan Birck (2Rs), Paul Nalette (HR, 2Rs) and Greg Gougian (2B, 3Rs).

IMEC tops Joks

Summary:

Who turned the power off? In the first inning IMEC scored 2 runs keyed by Peter Monaco's single. In the 4th, Cowboy Roy's single was the big hit in a 2-run inning that gave IMEC a 5-1 lead and all the runs they would need for this game. Hits were at a premium but those getting 4 hits were Cowboy Roy and getting 3 hits were Jack Gilhooly (3B), Bob Pelletier, Bob Royce (2Rs), and Bob Wogan. Dionnes score 8 in the 7th

Summary:

It was hot and humid, and it affected the fielding. There were 52 hits between both teams, and everyone had at least 1 hit. In the top of the first, Gary Johnson's triple keyed a 4-run start. Bob Lamontagne belted a solo HR in the 1st inning to highlight a 2-run reply. Arts rallied for 3 runs in their 3rd inning with big singles from Wil Mounsey and Armando Cortez to narrow the score to 7-6. In the top of the 4th, Dionnes scored 3 runs with back-to-back doubles from Perry Delisle and Rich Rosen. Arts rallied for 4 runs in the bottom of the 6th with back-to-back doubles from Dan Birck and Gary "I am STILL looking for my chips" Cook to narrow the score to 12-11. In the top of the 7th, Dionnes sent 12 batters to the plate and scored 8 runs on 8 hits, with key doubles from Mike Hastings, Rich Rosen and a triple from Gary Johnson. Arts did not go quietly in the 7th. They got 7 hits in a row, scored and scored 4. The game with a 4-6-3 double with the bases loaded. Hitting stars with 4 hits were Bob Lamontagne (HR, 3B, 2Rs), Dan Birck (2B, 3Rs) and with 3 hits were Jim Hall, Paul Nalette (2Rs), Wally Hedlund, Wil Mounsey, Armando "what's email?" Global outslugs Kittle

Summary:

In the previous 2 meetings Global had a large lead only to see Kittle rally in the late innings to win. Determined to not see that happen again Global score in every inning. In the bottom of the 1st inning, Rusty Schwarzenberg's double plated 2 runners to put Global up 2-1. In the bottom of the 2nd inning, Global scored 5 runs on 6 hits, and some questionable Kittle Defense. In the 4th inning, Global scored 4 runs with Paul Berard's triple and later Rusty Schwarzenberg lifted a long 3-run HR to right field and the rout was seemingly on. In the top of the 5th, Paul Doherty's opposite field 2-run HR highlighted a 5-run Kittle reply. But Global replied with 5 runs of their own highlighted by a Greg Gougian double to make the score 17-10. Kittles rallied in the top of the 7th with 3 hits, scoring a run but left the bases loaded. Hitting stars with 4 hits were Gerry Vye (2B, 3Rs) and with 3 hits were Greg Gougian (2B, 4Rs), Gary Royal (2B), enervated Gary Schoolcraft, Bob Napolitano, Mike Hastings, Paul Doherty (HR, 2B, 2Rs).
