Dionnes routs Global

Summary:

Dionnes left their automobiles swinging their bats, had a season high 38 hits and scored a season high 27 runs. A relentless attack where they scored at least 2 runs in every inning. Dionne's scored 5 in the 1st keyed by an Alton Russell double that glanced off the centerfielder's glove. Global scored 3 in their half of the 1st highlighted by doubles from Greg Gougian and Gerry Vye. Undaunted by that hiccup, Dionnes scored 5 more in their 2nd punctuated by a Gary Johnson single over the drawn in outfield. Adding insult to injury in the bottom 2nd, Dionnes stifled a Global rally with a nifty inning ending 6-11-3 double play! And onslaught continued in the 3rd as Dionnes scored 4 run keyed by an Alton Russell double. Dionnes had 8 singles in the inning but had 2 suicidal squirrels erased trying to take an extra base. In the bottom of the 3rd inning, Greg Gougian's lead off HR to dead center highlighted a Global 5 run inning to reduce the score to 14-8. In the Dionne's 5th, they scored 4 more keyed by a Rich Rosen double. Tough Trivia: Who has the most HRS hit after turning 40?

What's the call, Ump? Batter is up with a 2-2 count when the pitch is inside and hits the knob of the bat, and bounces foul.

Answer: Unfortunately for the batter, its strike 3. Sorry Jerry.

Joks wins low scorer

Summary:

Another low energy game. Joks only managed to get 12 hits, 4 didn't get any hits, but they still managed to win. In the Joks 1st, Rusty Schwarzenberg's opposite field single drove in 2 runs. In the Joks 3rd, Joks scored 4 with doubles from Bob Wogan and George "Not even the most interesting man in Manchester" Abood. Arts loaded the bases in the 4th, but wily Ron Lewis retired the next 2 batters on a pop up and caught next batter looking after falling behind 3-0 to hold Arts scoreless. And that came back to bite. In the Arts 6th, Dan Birck lined a ball to center that the centerfielder misplayed, and the ball rolled to fence for a 2-run HR. Arts made some noise in their 7th, loading the bases, scoring 1 but once again Ron Lewis wiggled off the hook and the game ended with the bases loaded. Most batters only had 3 at-bats. Hitting stats with 3 hits were Dan Birck (HR), Rusty Schwarzenberg (2B, 2Rs) and Steve Trubacz (3B).

Joks wins slugfest

Summary:

After scoring 27 and 25 in the previous 2 game, Dionnes has been red hot. However, on this hot and humid day, they clashed against a team that could match their fire power. Dionnes scored in every inning and had 26 hits. Joks had 3 5ers in a league where 2 is usually enough to sink your team. In the Joks 2nd, they scored the 1st of their 5ers with 7 hits keyed by a Nick Fowler double. In the Joks 4th inning, Joks scored 5 more keyed by a Dave Ciampa triple. In the Joks 6th inning, they scored their 3rd 5er on 7 consecutive hits without recording an out with Mark Lara's triple being the big hit to make the score 19-8 at that point. In the bottom of the 6th, Dionne's scored 4 runs highlighted by double from Rusty Schwarzenberg and Joe Richards. A double play poured water on that fire. Dionnes rallied for 5 runs in the bottom of the 7th with 6 consecutive hits. Dionnes left 2 runners on when the last batter was retired so they had an excellent chance to win. Hitting stars with 4 hits were Gary Johnson (2Rs), Joe Richards (2B, 3Rs) and with 3 hits were Rusty Schwarzenberg (2B, 2Rs), Rich Rosen (2B, 2Rs), Mike McDevitt, Paul Berard (2B), Bob Wogan (2B, 3Rs), Kevin Simoneau, Dave Ciampa (3B, 2Rs), George "the most interesting man someplace" Abood (3B), Steve Molloy, Mark Lara (3B, 2B, 3Rs), Nick Fowler (2B, 2Rs) and Ron Lewis (2Rs)

Pine Street survives 7th inning scare

Summary:

A battle for 1st place overall. IMEC outhit Pine Street 17-14 but Pine Street did all their damage in 2 inning. In the bottom of the 1st, Dave Duval's double put Pine Street up 2-1. In the 3rd, Pine Street scored 5 keyed by doubles from Bob Waters and Dave Duval. Pine Street only managed 2 hits the rest of the game. In the top of the 7th and after 2 quick outs, Steve Brzozowski squibber got past the pitcher and bounced off 2nd base to prolong the inning. The next 4 batters all singled. Rick Latham wandered into short right field for the next batter and was seemingly out of position, but the batter hit a humpback liner to the exact spot where Rick moved to. Smarter than the rest of us it seems. Hitting stars with 3 hits were Perry Delisle (2B, 2R), Mark Cockcroft, Peter Monaco and Bob Waters (2B, 2Rs)

Visionworks scores 5 in 6th and survive Global rally in 7th

Summary:

It was hot and humid, and a thunderstorm was coming. In the Global first inning, Rusty Schwarzenberg hit a liner to center and the throw to the infield was wild and Rusty ran all the way home for a 2-run to highlight a 2-run inning. Visionworks had 5 subs for this game. In the bottom of the 1st, they scored 4 runs highlighted with doubles from Kevin Simoneau and Mike Bahia. Fast forward to the 5th inning where Global took the lead 8-6 with a 5 run, 5 hit inning. Gerry Vye had a looping liner to right and Visionworks had 2 wild throws, and Gerry ended up with an inning ending 3-run HR with Visionworks fielders running around like a Chinese fire drill. That lead didn't last long when in the bottom of the 5th, Visionworks score 4 to retake the lead 10-8. Bob Wogan and Kevin Simoneau had back-to-back doubles and scored. Global scored 2 in the top of the 6th to tie the score at 10-10 with a Bob Napolitano triple (and some help with a wild throw). In the bottom of the 6th, Visionworks scored 5 runs on 5 hits highlighted by a big Mike Bahia 2-out single that bounced like it had eyes through the infield. Global didn't go quietly scoring 4 in the top of the 7th. Rusty Schwarzenberg had a bases loaded double off the centerfielder's glove, but wily Charlie Howe came back from a 3-0 count to strikeout the last batter with the tying runner on base. And so it goes. Hitting stars with 4 hits were Kevin Simoneau (2 2B, 4Rs), Mike Bahia (2B), Rusty Schwarzenberg (HR, 2B, 3Rs) and with 3 hits were Bob Wogan (2 2B, 3Rs), Dave Ciampa (3Rs), Bob Napolitano (3B) and Steve Brzozowski (2Rs)

Summary:

Another low scoring game by our standards. In the top of the 1st, doubles from Don Clark and Ed Longo gave Kittles a 3-0 lead. In the bottom of the 1st, Joe Richards's big 2 out single keyed a 2-run reply. In the 2nd, Kittles scored 2 runs highlighted by a Jim Higgins triple to take the lead 5-2. In the M&N 3rd, they scored 5 runs with a double from John Peterman and big single from Leo Melanson. In the Kittle's 6th, they scored 3 runs to take the lead 8-7 keyed by a big Del Patton double. With the bottom of the M&N lineup due up, things didn't look rosy, but the bottom 3 batters all singled and a big double from Perry Delisle put M&N up 10-8. Kittles went 1-2-3 in their 7th.
